COMMITTEE ON ENERGY AND COMMERCE

2125 RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING

WASHINGTON, DC 20515-6115

Majority (202) 225-3641

Minority (202) 225-2927

November 6, 2024

The Honorable Lina M. Khan
Chair
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington DC 20580

Dear Chair Khan:

The results of the 2024 presidential election are now apparent and leadership of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) will soon change. As a traditional part of the peaceful transfer of power, the FTC should immediately stop work on any partisan or controversial item under consideration, consistent with applicable law and regulation.

There are many bipartisan, consensus items that the FTC could pursue to fulfill its mission before the end of your tenure. I urge you to focus your attention on these matters.

Sincerely,

Cathy McMorris Rodgers

Chair

House Energy and Commerce Committee
